

Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy

1. Introduction

This Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy outlines the guidelines and procedures to be followed by customers and clients of (Seed To Harvest LLC) (referred to as "the Company") when requesting cancellations or rescheduling of appointments, services, or events. The policy establishes a 3 business days (72 hours) advanced notice requirement to ensure effective scheduling and minimize disruptions to the Company's operations.

2. Advanced Notice Requirement

Customers and clients are required to provide a minimum of 3 business days (72 hours) advanced notice when requesting cancellations or rescheduling of appointments, services, or events booked with the Company. This notice period is intended to allow the Company sufficient time to adjust its schedule, allocate resources, and minimize potential disruptions.

3. Requesting Cancellations or Reschedules

Customers and clients must follow these steps when requesting cancellations or reschedules:

Contact the Company: To initiate a cancellation or rescheduling request, customers and clients must contact the Company's designated contact point or customer service within the advanced notice period.

Provide Details: Customers and clients should provide specific details about the appointment, service, or event, including the date, time, and reason for the request.

Confirmation: The Company will confirm receipt of the request and provide instructions on how to proceed.

4. Compliance with Advanced Notice

Requests for cancellations or reschedules received within the 3 business days (72 hours) advanced notice period will be processed according to the Company's cancellation and rescheduling policy, which may include applicable fees or terms.

Requests received outside the advanced notice period may be subject to different terms or conditions, as specified by the Company.

5. Client Responsibility

3 Strike Policy

The Company implements a '3 strike' policy to ensure fairness to all our clients. If a client cancels a session that is not within the cancellation time frame (less than 3 business days in advance) three times, The Company reserve the right not to rebook the client in the future. This policy is in place to encourage adherence to our cancellation policy and to allow other clients fair access to our services.

No-Show

Customers and clients that book sessions and fails to cancel in the required 3 business days (72 hours) advanced notice period and does not show up to the session, that will be a no-show. The Company reserve the right not to rebook the client in the future. This policy is in place to encourage adherence to our cancellation policy and to allow other clients fair access to our services.

6. Fees and Charges

The Company reserves the right to charge fees for cancellations or reschedules made within the advanced notice period, as outlined in the Company's fee schedule or terms of service. These fees may vary depending on the type of appointment, service, or event.

7. Exceptions

The advanced notice requirement may be waived or modified in exceptional circumstances, such as emergencies or unforeseen situations. The Company will evaluate such cases on an individual basis and may exercise discretion in applying the policy.

8. Communication and Confirmation

The Company will maintain open and transparent communication with customers and clients regarding the status of their cancellation or rescheduling requests. Confirmation of the cancellation or rescheduled appointment, service, or event will be provided to the customer or client.

9. Modification of Policy

The Company reserves the right to modify or amend this Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy as necessary. Any changes will be communicated to all customers and clients on the website.

10. Conclusion

This Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy is established to ensure efficient scheduling and minimize disruptions for both the Company and its customers or clients. Adherence to the 3 business days (72 hours) advanced notice requirement is essential to maintaining effective operations while accommodating reasonable changes in scheduling.
